

FORTY DROWNED IN A COLLISION OF TWO VESSELS

CAPTAINS OF STEAMERS PLACE
ALL THE BLAME UPON MATE
CHAS DENNISON.

WHO SANK WITH SHIP

Of Seven Women and Girls Aboard
One of the Vessels Only One Child Escaped.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 19.—Between forty and forty-five persons are known to have lost their lives as the result of a collision between the Alaska freight steamer Jeanie, and the river steamer Dix at Alki Point.

Chas. Dennison, mate of the Dix, is charged with the responsibility for the wreck by Captain Lermond, and Captain Mason, masters of the Dix and Jeanie. Dennison went down with his ship. He was at the wheel temporarily in charge of the Dix.
While the captain was collecting the tickets, he endeavored to cross the Jeanie's bows in the face of a warning cry from the captain of the latter, and the Dix was cut in two. She sank instantly. Many of the passengers jumped overboard though no doubt a score or more went down with the boat, not having the slightest chance for their lives. The captain of the Jeanie lowered two life-boats with the greatest dispatch and rescued many who had jumped. Of the seven women and girls aboard the Dix only one, Alice Simpson, 14, escaped. Most of the Dix's passengers were residents of the mill town of Port Blakely, nine miles across the sound from Seattle.

"I do not know how it happened," Captain Lermond today said. "Charles Dennison, mate of the boat was at the wheel when I heard the bell signal to stop and rushed forward to see what was up. Almost instantly the Jeanie was hit amidship. The Dix careened like a flash and the water rushed in all over. Above the roar of the rushing water, cries and screams of men, women and children could be heard."
"I could see people inside the cabin
The expression on their faces was that of indescribable despair. What tool place in the cabin will never be known as no one was saved from there. Thirty-six of our 79 passengers were saved by the crew of the Jeanie. The rest drowned."

The Dix sank in 100 fathoms of water. The Jeanie, a government launch, scout, and several tugs are now
searching for the bodies at the scene.
Captain Mason says he saw the Dix astern and on his port, but coming up fast. She continued to increase her speed as if to cross the Jeanie's bow.
Seeing this, Captain Mason hailed the Dix.

"What are you trying to do? What do you mean?"
This was heard by passengers on the Dix as well as nearly every member of the crew of the Jeanie. Seeing that the Dix kept up her effort to cross the bow Captain Mason signalled full speed astern, but it was too late. The Jeanie struck the Dix on the starboard side amidship, almost cutting her in two. She clung for a second only, but long enough for eight or ten passengers to leap to the Jeanie or cling to her sides until they could be hauled aboard.

The force of the collision swung the Dix around on to the Jeanie's starboard bow. The Dix rolled over to port, righted and listed slightly to starboard and then went down stern
first.

Tennessee Hit Hard.

NUMBER OF PERSONS DEAD

Churches and Other Buildings Demolished or Damaged and All Communication Cut Off—Streams Out of Bounds, the Floods Tearing Up Railway Traffic—Victims of Gale.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 19.—Eight persons are known to have lost their lives, scores of others were hurt and property and crops suffered great damage as a result of one of the most torrential-like wind and rain storms ever experienced in this section. The storm, which originated on the gulf,
swept northeastward through portions of Alabama, central and northern Mississippi and western Tennessee,
and in its northward course razed
scores of substantial buildings, partially demolished hundreds of others, caused a complete demoralization of railroad traffic and cut off telegraphic communication with many points in the affected territory.

Cotton in the fields blown down by the wind was beaten into the ground and if not totally, badly damaged. Besides the loss of life and property damage, which is known to have occurred, a number of points directly in the pathway of the storm cannot be communicated with and when complete returns have been received it is feared that the loss to life and property will be greatly increased.

A small stream running eastward of this city is out of its banks in many places and in the vicinity of Ross-ville, Tenn., is several miles wide, the town, being completely inundated and the populace in a state bordering on panic.

At Winona, Miss., the Catholic,
Christian and negro Methodist churches and the Hestry brickyard were demolished and numerous buildings unroofed and badly damaged.
Among the largest buildings damaged
at this place are the postoffice, opera house, the oil mill, the compress, warehouse of the Jackson Mercantile company and the residence of E. J.
Dunkel. Besides these, about 25 smaller buildings were almost completely destroyed.

At Mathison, Miss., serious damage is reported to have occurred and a woman killed by a falling building. At Tchula a falling tree, striking a small frame building, caused it to be set afire, a woman and child being burned to death. At Nonconunah creek, a few miles from this city, a railroad trestle fell under the weight of a switch engine, the engine plunging into the swollen stream, carrying with it Engineer Peterson and Fireman A. R.
Ritchie, who were drowned. West Point, Columbus and Mahan, Miss., are reported to have suffered serious damage.

LATEST REPORT OF STORMY SCENE BETWEEN SENATOR AND MRS. PLATT

SENATOR
THOMAS C. PLATT
REPRESENTATIVE

New York, Nov. 19.—Following the announcement that Senator Thomas Collier Platt and his wife had ended their brief married life by signing a deed of permanent separation came the report that Mrs. Platt had a stormy scene with her husband after finding him in a house in Thirty-eighth street. Accompanied by detectives, it was said, and her coachman, J. K. Hedges, who has figured so prominently in the Platt wrangles, Mrs. Platt is said to have encountered her husband while she was on an evidence hunting tour.

After watching the house from windows in the Hotel Navarre, the party is said to have crossed the street, rang the bell, brushed aside the person who opened the door and gone to a rear room on the first floor
where, it is alleged, the Senator was found.

This much the woman who owns the house admits, but she denies that a young woman was in the house or that Mrs. Platt secured a pair of woman's shoes other than those of a maid.

All this is said to have transpired
in September, before the publicity attending their recent domestic troubles had brought to light a Western trip made by the Platts in a private car and on which Hedges accompanied the party. During the latter part of the jaunt, it is alleged, there was a break, during which the Senator refused to see his wife, and this eventually was followed by the signing of the deed of separation and the Senator's agreement to pay Mrs.
Platt an annuity of $10,000.

Brown first met the defendant, took in public with her, that one night he would appear in public with her.

PRESIDENT AGAIN AT SEA

Will Visit Porto Rico Before Returning to the States.

QUE AT PONCE WEDNESDAY

Pays His Respects in a Speech at Colon to Those Who Criticized Canal Work, and Congratulates All Heads of Departments—Essence of His Remarks.

Colon, Nov. 19.—The battleship
Louisiana, with President Roosevelt and party on board, sailed for Porto Rico, where the president will look over things before returning home.
The party will arrive at Ponce Wednesday. Just before boarding the Louisiana here the president made an address to 500 persons, principally canal employees.

In giving his impressions of the work on the canal he said he was pleased with what already had been done, and paid his respects to those who had adversely criticized the work.
"How about Penitney Biglow?" came from among the auditors.

With much deliberation the president remarked that in every large work there was always some one to find something that was not done as it should have been. But the employees should on no account pay attention to such criticisms, as the critics would sink out of sight, while that which the workmen were doing and had done would remain long after all criticism had been forgotten. President Roosevelt also was impressed with the magnitude and greatness of this work, and said that he would like to see one of his sons engaged therein. He congratulated all the heads of departments upon the work being done and with especial warmth he congratulated Captain George R. Shanton on his success in maintaining order in the canal zone and in perfecting the police force under his control. In conclusion the president said he would like to remain longer on the Isthmus, but that it was necessary for him to get back to his work in the United States.

will be used as an aerial squadron
from which explosives will be dropped. Mr. Wellman thinks this government would do well to consider the plan.

BOMB EXPLODED IN CATHEDRAL AT ROME SUNDAY

BIG EDIFICE WAS CROWDED AND PEOPLE WERE THROWN INTO PANIC.

WILD SCRAMBLE FOLLOWED

Children Screamed and Women Fainted—Author of Outrage is Unknown.

(Bulletin.)

Rome, Nov. 19.—Rome is in a panic today following the attempt to blow up St. Peter's yesterday, the assassination of Prof. Rossi of Naples, and the reported bomb outrage at the Quirinal, the royal palace. It is believed a gang of the most desperate anarchists in the world is operating in this city. A report that a bomb had been exploded at the Quirinal last night, and was regarded as an attempt on the life of King Victor Emanuel. It has been shown today that a small boy exploded a firecracker in a tunnel under the royal palace, and the incident was magnified. There is no doubt that the bomb at St. Peter's was meant for Pope Pius.
It had been erroneously reported that the pontiff would attend services in St. Peter's yesterday. Anarchists are supposed to have arranged the plot for his murder. At the Vatican special arrangements have been made to protect the pope.

Rome, Nov. 19.—St. Peter's was the scene of a panic Sunday, when an unknown person exploded a bomb near the high altar. The great building was crowded and when the explosion occurred a mad rush was made for the exits. A canon sought by reassuring words to quiet the people, but in vain. They fled in all directions and a number of women fainted. Women and children screamed and men tried to protect their families in the crush. The church is so large, however, that there was ample room for the crowd to scatter and no one was injured. No trace of the perpetrator
of the deed has been found.

The theory is held that this attempt was not directed against the papacy, but rather a challenge to society in general by attacking religion,
the most sacred institution of the people.

Sunday was the anniversary of the dedication of the basilica to St. Peter and it was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Holy relics were exposed and a large number of the faithful attended the services. Cardinal Rampolla, former papal secretary of state, was among those present. He took part in the service in the choir chapel. The last mass had just been concluded when the explosion occurred, and only one canon, who had not quite finished, remained at the altar of St. Petronilla. This altar is at the end of the right aisle, and it was near here the bomb was placed. As the canon turned to bless the communicants there was a tremendous roar, which echoed through the lofty arches of the immense dome like a thunder clap. At the same time a dense smoke spread throughout this portion of the basilica and a strong odor of gunpowder filled the air. Confusion and panic at once seized the people. Chairs were overturned, making the confusion more serious.
As soon as the smoke cleared away
a hasty examination showed that nobody had been hurt in the crush and that no one had been wounded by the explosion. Calm was gradually restored and people returned to view
the extent of the damage.

It was discovered that the bomb
had been placed under a scaffolding which had been erected to facilitate repairs to the roof, exactly over the celebrated tomb of Clement XIII. by Canova, which consists of a figure of the pope and two lions and which is the most remarkable piece of sculpture in the basilica. The tomb was found to be absolutely unharmed and even the pavement shows scarcely any signs of the explosion.

FAMILY IS POISONED

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 19.—The home of John G. Connel, whether here today or not, is a very sick descendant of the past. They think an attempt has been made to poison the family
by means of arsenic in their beef steak.
Those affected are Greenleaf Whittier,
son of the poet's biographer, his wife,
W. Pickard and a nurse. All were taken ill after eating the steak. An analysis showed the meat to be full of arsenic. The police suspect a woman who frequently expressed hatred
for the family.

Senator of Texas, died at Crystal Springs, Miss.

MUSIC STUDY IN NEWARK SCHOOLS

CHILDREN IN LOWER GRADES ARE TAUGHT TO SING AND TO SING WELL

An Advocate Man With Professor Nussbaum Pays Visit to Several of the Schools.

That Newark's promoters of education realize the importance of music in the public schools, was shown to the entire satisfaction of an Advocate representative who took the pains to visit a number of the schools of the city and heard the singing of the pupils in grades ranging from the first to the eighth.

Some of the most remarkable work in sight reading by children of but six, eight and ten years of age was heard. Leaving their work and recitations the little ones took up their music books eagerly and sang for the Advocate man. In the lower grades, of course, only one part music is taught them, but as they advance the music study grows more and more difficult until in the eighth grades they work on some of the best classic compositions in three parts and read some of the most difficult music by number or note readily and accurately.

Prof. W. W. Nussbaum, the supervisor of music in the schools, acted as an escort to the Advocate representative in his visits and it is interesting to note the reception given Mr. Nussbaum in the various rooms of the schools in the city. As soon as he enters the faces are seen to brighten and a look of genuine hearty welcome appear on the face of every child in the room. When he asks their attention they give it to him undivided. The teachers say that the pupils always do that way for Mr. Nussbaum when they do not always do so with their other instructors. This naturally suggested to the Advocate man the question "Why?" Is it because they have a change and because their music is "easy?" He soon discovered, however, that their study of music is not easy for them by any means, but it is the system of teaching it which wins their confidence and friendship for Mr. Nussbaum. When asked the secret of it Mr. Nussbaum said:

"Well, it's all in the way you treat them. Now, you noticed that when I went in a room I spoke to them 'Good afternoon, boys and girls,' and they all returned my greeting with 'Good afternoon, Mr. Nussbaum,' and the same way in leaving them. I joke with them occasionally, but in doing so I try to keep them understanding that they are there for business. It never gains anything to scold them, and knowing this, I use patience alone. They get so that they all like their music and take an interest in it."

In answer to a question regarding his system of instruction, Mr. Nussbaum stated that he had begun teaching the younger pupils music that they could sing instead of drilling them endlessly on notes. In other words, he created an interest in music by teaching them to sing songs about the birds, flowers, trees, etc. One teacher asked him if it would not be very nice to teach them some religious songs. Mr. Nussbaum consented and the teacher began her work of instructing them in "Work, for the Night is Coming." After a short time she reported to Mr. Nussbaum that the pupils failed to get along in that class of music. She seemed very much disappointed that her efforts met with no success. Mr. Nussbaum asked what song she had tried to teach them. She told him, and he resolved to try them personally. Of course they could not sing the song.

Expecting as much, he took up one of the songs of a more simple theme, this one being about the sunshine and dealing with it in a religious sense. Not requiring such deep thought from the young minds, they sang it readily and after one or two trials different pupils would request that they be permitted to sing "the sunshine song."

In this way an interest is created in music and as the little ones advance in their schooling they are better equipped mentally to take up the deeper study of notes and expression. They begin to love the study of music. It is a change for them that is so much different from their other studies. It develops the highest and noblest qualities of mind and with the system and style of teaching employed by Mr. Nussbaum and the able assistance offered by the city teachers there is scarcely a measure to the possibilities of music in the schools. And already there have been a number of remarkable voices discovered in the higher grades which may mean great futures for their possessors.

GREAT FIGHT AGAINST TRUST

COURT IS ASKED TO DECLARE THE STANDARD OIL ILLEGAL AND VOID.

Rockefeller and Associates Accused of Conspiracy to Monopolize Trade.

In the greatest fight ever made on the Standard Oil Trust the government presents its charges against John D. Rockefeller and others and 11 corporations, charging violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust law and asking the court for an injunction, the effect of which would be to cause the dissolution of the trust.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER

John D. Rockefeller and his associates are accused of a conspiracy to monopolize all commerce in petroleum and its products the method being to obtain secret rebates from railroads. The New York Central and practically all the great railroads of the country had secret and illegal agreements with the Standard, it is charged. These railroads discriminated against all independent oil producers, the system covering the whole of the United States.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER

It is asserted that the trust has a large interest in and controls many railroads. It discriminates between these railroads itself, selling oil to some at half the rate at which it does to others.

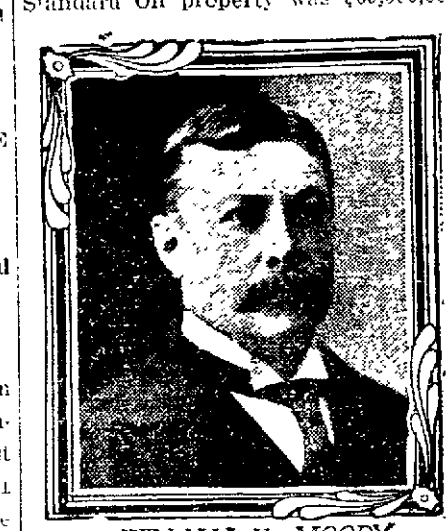

The manner of the ordered liquidation was not to sell the properties and divide the proceeds among the certificate holders, but all of the stocks of each company were divided into portions, so that Rockefeller and his associates, after the pretended dissolution, continued to control the said companies as before.

The railroads and Standard stopped the rate discrimination when a government investigation was under way and they knew that the facts would become public.

Secret reports on competitors' business, bogus independent companies and cutting prices until competition was driven out were some of the methods charged.

It is shown that the total value of Standard Oil property was $69,000,000.

WILLIAM H. MOODY

and that on this dividends of $512,000,000 were paid from 1882 to 1895 and a large surplus created. Since 1896 no statements have been issued.

The court is asked to declare the Standard Oil company of New Jersey illegal and void.

For any pain, from top to toe, from any cause, apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Pain can't stay where it is used.

CARRIED FREE

Are Passengers By Ohio River Boats.

Strenuous Competition.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 19.—Passengers are being carried free of fare on every packet between this city and Parkersburg as a result of competition between rival lines. When Captain Mack Gamble announced that he would put a boat on between these points, the company heretofore controlling the line then running decided to carry passengers free. NEW PLANS FOR PUMP STATION

NEW ENGINEERS FIX PLACE TO STORE COAL IN THE NEW BUILDING.

Took Away Large Visitors' Gallery, and Added Vestibule to Front of Station.

New plans have been received at the Board of Service Office for the new pumping station at the site of the new municipal water plant. There are some radical changes in the new plans. The new engineer has added a coal storage room, has taken away the "visitors' gallery" which extended clear around the interior of the building, and has reduced the size of the engineer's office or retiring room and the laboratory which is on the opposite side of the building.

There has been added to the front of the building a vestibule which permits two stairways to be built to the floor of the engine room without taking up additional room on the floor space. The space for the engines is already inadequate, but it is impossible now to change the plans so as to enlarge the floor space in the engine room.

The new vestibule feature gives a small visitors' gallery from which visitors to the big plant can watch the work of the engines and in addition gives two stairways to the floor of the engine room.

trade mark of the National Biscuit Company. It points the way to the food of quality—biscuit and crackers so perfectly baked and properly protected; so cleanly packed and freshly kept, that they never fail to please in their mission to the appetite and heart.

This trade mark always appears in red and white.
It is placed on each end of a dust and moisture proof package that keeps the contents in their original condition.

National Biscuit Company products are thus distinguished and warranted—you are thus protected and guided, in buying the most perfect of bakery products.

As an example try a package of GRAHAM CRACKERS. You will instantly recognize their superiority over any ordinary Graham crackers you ever tasted. They contain all the good of the best Graham flour enhanced by perfect baking.

CONTRACTORS NOT DOING WORK RIGHT

Necessary to Have Inspector on Job Constantly to See That They Don't Shirk.

The Board of Public Service is experiencing some difficulty with the Phoenix Construction company which has the contract for putting in the pipe line for the municipal water plant. The company it is said, is not living up to the contract in doing the work, and the presence of Engineer Smith is constantly required on the line. He has duties which call him to other parts of the city and it is impossible for him to be on the spot
all the time. The board has found it necessary to engage an inspector,
and an effort was being made Monday to locate a good man for the job.
The contract calls for the tamping of the earth around the pipe and when the inspector or engineer is not on hand to watch the workmen, they neglect to do the work, it is claimed.
This is the particular part of the contract which it is said, is being violated.

GREATER ZION COLONY.

City With Free Homes For Poor Prepared by New Overseer.

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, successor to John Alexander Dowie as head of the Christian Catholic church, opened his heart to a company of his followers in Kenosha, Ill., the other morning and told of his plans for the erection of a new Zion, which he would make the greatest religious colony in the world.
The plan of Voliva is to bring together
again the scattered forces of Zion City.
In speaking in Kenosha, Voliva started to talk on "The Kingdom of God,"
and then he outlined his plans, says the Chicago Tribune.

At the climax of his address he qualified his faith so far as to threaten that if his religious plans should prove impracticable he would become an infidel and "smash orthodox churches."
"I am not as yet ready to give my policies to the world in a written statement," he said, "but in a few weeks I will issue a statement which will make their heads swim at Zion City. These policies of mine shall be as different from those of John Alexander Dowie as day is from night."
"The first command that shall be observed in the new city is absolute freedom from debt. Neither Zion nor a man in Zion shall owe a cent. It is my plan to establish colonies. I know not where at this time, in which the homeless and friendless of the world shall be cared for. I shall have a tract of thousands of acres of land, to which I will be able to invite the homeless of the world and ask them to take twenty acre tracts and to earn an honest living. To their question as to the rent for the land there will be but one reply. 'This is God's land and for God's people.'"

"It will be my plan to build factories for the workmen and go down and work with them. I shall absolutely do away with the aristocratic circle that has grown up in Zion, and henceforth the work shall be for the downtrodden and the poor, and all shall be of equal standing."

Voliva made a drastic attack on the orthodox churches and declared, "I have no use for your churches, not one iota, and if the churches of the day

Watches made by the American watch trust are bought in Europe by an enterprising New York dealer who imports them and after paying ocean freight both ways is able to sell them for lower prices than his competitors who buy direct from the trust. The trusts will one of these days be demanding a treasury ruling in their favor to save them from the ruinous competition of their own products shipped back from foreign countries. And when the trusts make this demand somebody will object, which will be the occasion for a "free trade" howl all along the line of the stand-patters.

Here comes the Marion Star admitting that it takes more money to buy almost anything than was required two or three years ago. It is only a few weeks since the Star made an effort to convince its readers that it was all right for the trusts to charge more in American markets for their products than in foreign markets, an argument that was made four years ago in the congressional campaign by Chairman Babcock of the Republican congressional campaign committee who was defeated in Wisconsin at the recent election, he running for another term in Congress. And among the claims of the last Republican campaign text book was that to the effect that prices had not risen perceptibly.

Southern newspapers are demanding laws against the practice of carrying concealed weapons. So the demand for reform spreads from section to section of the country.

The Paris court did not give Count Boni an income when deciding the divorce case. It would do the world good to see him compelled to go to work and earn his living.

Senatorial Contests and Changes.

(New York World.)

The terms of thirty members of the United States Senate will expire on March 3, 1907. In only a few states, and those Republican, does the reelection of sitting senators or the choice of their successors remain in doubt.

Where Democratic senators are to retire in the South their Democratic successors have generally been designated, as in the case of Senator Berry, of Arkansas, and Senator Carmack, of Tennessee, who will make room for Gov. "Jeff" Davis and "Fiddling Bob" Taylor. Senator Patterson, of Colorado, will yield probably to Simon Guggenheim, who is credited with having financed the Republican state campaign, and the legislatures of Idaho and Montana will replace Senator Dubois and Senator Clark with Republicans. The good old days seemed to have passed in Montana when Clark with Midas-like touch could turn Republican votes into gold.

In at least three States the Republicans are sharply divided. In Rhode Island enough independent Republicans have declared themselves against the corrupt Brayton-Aldrich machine to threaten the extinction of Senator Wetmore and to give hopes, through Democratic co-operation, of the election of Col. Goddard.

Senator Dryden's chances of reelection in New Jersey grow slimmer as the time for the assembling of the legislature draws nearer. But he is fighting desperately and has gone to Trenton to marshal his forces in person.

Michigan has four leading candidates who aspire to Senator Alger's seat—Representative William Alden Smith, Representative Charles E. Townsend, Arthur Hill, a wealthy lumberman, who fought the old McMillan machine in days past, and William C. McMillan, the former senator's son.

Morris Brown is slated to take the place of Senator Millard, of Nebraska, and Senator Benson, of Kansas, who by appointment is serving out the unexpired term of ex-Senator Burton—which Burton is serving in jail—expects to be elected. In New Hampshire Winston Churchill, leader of the Lincoln Republicans, may reappear as a candidate for Senator Burnham's seat. In Delaware Senator Allee may be replaced by a Du Pont man.

Kentucky has already elected Judge Paynter to succeed Senator Blackburn next March, and the recent elections indicated Gov. Beckham as Senator McCreary's successor after March 3, 1909.

So far the Democrats have lost voting strength in the Senate and not improved the character of the party's representation, while the Republicans have gained three seats and can be dropping Wetmore, Dryden, Allee and Alger better their position considerably if they will.

SAYS HEARST.

Will Never Again Be a Candidate For Office.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 19.—William R. Hearst, recently Democratic candidate for governor of New York, was here for a few minutes on his way to Monterey, where he has mining interests. He is accompanied by the members of his family. In discussing what his future course will be in reference to politics in New York, he said: "I will never again be a candidate. I shall continue to reside in New York and advocate and support the principles of reform which I have always stood for, but these principles are now sufficiently understood by the general public for it to be no longer necessary for me to be a candidate."

ROOT TO SPEAK

On Trade Relations Between United States and South America.

Kansas City, Nov. 19.—Many men of public note will be in Kansas City this week, some as guests of the Commercial club's annual dinner on Monday night in commemoration of the signing of the John Jay commercial treaty and others to attend the 17th annual convention of the trans-Mississippi Commercial clubs, which will begin a four days' session on Tuesday morning. The principal topics of discussion will concern plans for trade expansion, both in this country and the United States and the Latin American republics. The most significant event in the week's doings is expected on Tuesday evening, when Elihu Root, secretary of state, will make his first official utterance on the trade relations between this country and the South American republics since arriving from his trip to those countries.

Vessels Blown Ashore.

Fort William, Ont., Nov. 19.—In the terrific gale which has raged on Lake Superior for two days, the Canadian steamer Theano, Captain George Pearson, struck on a rock four miles east of Thunder cape and was totally wrecked. The American steamer Philip Minch and the Canadian steamer Strathcona were also blown ashore during the storm and the former may be a total loss. The crews of all three steamers are safe.

THREE VACANCIES IN LOWER BRANCH

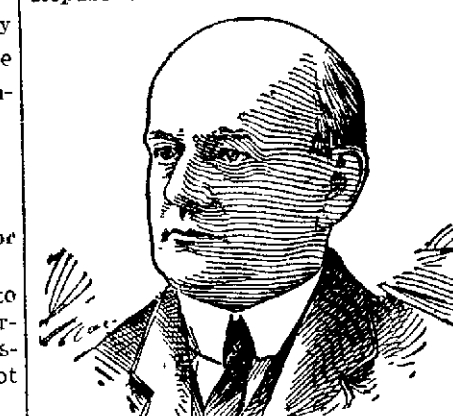

WHO WOULD BE GOVERNOR OF OHIO IN CASE OF GEN. HARRIS' DEATH?

New Member of Public Works Board—Standard Oil Talk—Ohio Shippers' Association.

Columbus, Nov. 19.—When Governor Harris appointed B. W. Baldwin of Ashtabula a member of the state board of public works to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Captain R. B. Crowford, he created a third vacancy in the lower house of the Ohio legislature, for Mr. Baldwin is representative of Ashtabula county and chairman of the house finance committee.

The other vacancies result from the election of Speaker Thompson, representative from Lawrence county, to the office of secretary of state, beginning in January; and the election of Representative W. A. Ashbrook of Licking county to congress beginning March 4, 1907.

Thompson and Baldwin are Republicans, and Ashbrook is a Democrat, so that these vacancies will leave the Republicans 60 members in the house and the Democrats 55. The Republicans will still have a majority of two in the house, even if the two independents from Toledo vote with the Democrats. It may be that special elections will be ordered next November to fill these and such other vacancies as might occur, for another session of this legislature will be held beginning the first Monday in January, 1908. It is presumed that the present organization will stand, except the speakership of the house, and a new chairman must be chosen for the house finance committee, which the committee itself will designate, unless the speaker is to be chosen to succeed Thompson finds it necessary or expedient to reorganize the committees.

B. W. BALDWIN
Appointed Member of the State Board of Public Works.

If the present organization stands, Freeman T. Eagleson of Guernsey county, the speaker pro tem of the house, will succeed to the office of speaker, either with or without the formality of an election, and it would be necessary only to choose another speaker pro tem. But there is talk of another speakership contest, for which Eagleson, Little of Green, Alkin of Logan and several others are mentioned. As it is more than a year distant there is plenty of time to speculate about it.

The change wrought in the membership of the house caused a refunding of salaries from the three members who go to other official positions. All members of the legislature drew their salary this year for the full term. Speaker Thomas has already refunded his salary received for next year, Mr. Baldwin will do the same, and so will Mr. Ashbrook. But Ashbrook need not do so until March 3, which will give him a fractional part of the year's stipend.

These refunders raise a question that might have been raised heretofore—as to what should be done about the salary of a member of the legislature who dies before the expiration of term, or loses his residence in the county he represents by removing to another county or leaving the state before his term expires.

It is said that the governor's action in appointing Mr. Baldwin to the state board of public works is based on developments being made by Wheeler C. Wilkoff, who as a special examiner for the state auditor, acting under a law of last winter, is making a thorough examination of the board's books. For many years they have not agreed with the state auditor's books, but because of lack of authority the state auditor has never been able to tell why. Wilkoff has only begun the work and his report will not come out for months. He keeps in close touch with State Auditor Guilbert, however, and the latter knows about what he is digging up. Through the auditor, the governor is informed that there is a lack of business methods in the board. Mr. Baldwin has had large business matters on his hands. These facts led the governor to select Baldwin over a long list of applicants for the place.

William Kirtley, Jr., and George H. Watkins, members of the state board of public works, resent the charge of looseness in the management of the board's affairs. The conflict between the account in the office of the board and in the auditor of state's office, is explained by Kirtley and Watkins as being due to the fact that special appropriations have been made to individuals and credited to the board. They claim also that all contracts are let by competitive bids.

At the last meeting of the state board of public works, bids were opened for improvements to be made in the Wauhatch canal. There was a difference of over $10,000 in the bids. The lowest bidder was W. H. Schott, Chicago, $20,774, and the highest bidder, W. M. Brode, Newcomerstown, $32,635. The estimated cost is $23,468. Bids were offered a week ago and rejected as too high. Action was postponed until Tuesday, when Mr. Baldwin will take his seat with the board.

Hearing on the complaint of the Ohio Shippers' association against Ohio railroads, in regard to demurrage charges, was commenced before the state railroad commission in the old office of the railroad commissioner, in the statehouse. It was expected before the hearing commenced that possibly it would last a week, but it may not be finished under 10 days or two weeks. A number of interested railroad men and shippers, many of them from outside the city, are in attendance. The commission is holding night sessions to expedite the hearings.

After long delay the contest for chaplain at the penitentiary was settled by the reappointment of Rev. Dr. D. J. Starr of Hamilton county. The annual report of the penitentiary board shows total earnings of the penitentiary for the year of $32,355.74, a decrease of $8,887.94 from the preceding year.

At a meeting of the state emergency board a number of allowances were granted, among the most important of which are the following: To the Ohio national guard for the expenses of sending troops to Belmont county in the miners' strike, $6,800. To the adjutant general's department, $2,053 for the payment of additional salaries to the adjutant general and the assistant adjutant general and the assistant quartermaster general. It increases the salary of the adjutant general from $2,000 to $5,500 and those of the other two officers from $1,500 to $2,000 each. To the state board of health for the expenses of the members of the board, $4,000. To the Girl's Industrial school, for new steam and water pipes, $5,000. To the Ohio university at Athens, for alterations in the heating plant, $7,000. To the Ohio State university for repairs of damages in the chemical laboratory and loss of chemicals by fire, $12,200.

The death of one governor so recently, which no doubt was hastened by exposure the day of his inauguration, makes the people apprehensive whenever there is the slightest indisposition felt by his successor. This is why there was so much uneasiness during the week over the confinement of Governor Harris to his rooms with a severe cold he brought with him when he returned to the capital Nov. 12 from his home in Eaton. The governor was not threatened with pneumonia as reported, but at his age "common colds" are dangerous and complications were feared. He was not able to be at his office till Friday.

The governor's illness caused the question to be asked: Who would become governor in event of the death or disability of Gov. Harris?

This is not easily answered. Some think it would be the presiding officer of the senate, who is next in rank to the lieutenant governor—in the senate. This would bring Senator Williams of Cleveland to the executive chair.

Some think it would be the speaker of the house, but the election of Speaker Thompson to another office creates a vacancy that will not be filled until January, 1908, which suggests a complication even if that were the proper line of succession.

The laws of Ohio are not very clear on the line of succession beyond lieutenant governor. This deficiency was mentioned and discussed before the close of the last session, but nothing was done about it. Like many other matters, it was neglected when the legislature had lots of time to kill, and there was no time to do it in the final rush—besides it would not have looked well for the legislature to consider such a matter with the governor lying on his death bed. It is likely, however, that something will be done at the next session to more clearly designate the line of succession. There is no precedent to go by.

The air is so full of Standard Oil talk that it is hardly worth while to repeat any of it here. But Attorney General Ellis said something about the ouster suits against the Standard he began in court at Lima, which is explanatory. The companies sued are the Standard Oil company of Ohio, Buckeye Pipe Line company, Ohio Oil company and Solar Refining company. The suits are brought under the Ohio law, which forbids one corporation to own the stock of a competing company. Concerning the suits Attorney General Ellis said: "I do not want to drive the Standard and its business from Ohio. I only want to force it to be fair and open in its dealings. All appreciate that its business means the circulation of large sums of money in Ohio. It is not the business which we seek to destroy, but the system of fake competition and the use of decoy companies."

FREIGHT RATE ON THE INTERURBAN

TROLLEY FURNISHES PRACTICALLY EXPRESS SERVICE AT FREIGHT RATE.

Poll of Erie Switchmen—Demand for Increase in Pay—Day's Railway Budget.

Columbus, O., Nov. 19.—The recent announcement of the Indiana, Columbus & Eastern railway of its reduction in freight rates between Zanesville and Columbus and intermediate points to practically steam road rates, effective today, it is believed, will cause a serious rate war between steam and electric roads. The L. C. & E. recently reduced its freight rates on all divisions between Columbus and Indianapolis to the steam road freight rate basis so that now the electric system furnishes practically an express service at freight rates.

Poll of Erie Switchmen.
Peoria, Ill., Nov. 19.—Grand Master John J. Hannahan of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, who spent the C. & E. returned to New York to again take in hand the demands of the Erie system's switchmen for an increase in pay and unified work day. The referendum vote of the members of the order on the system will be canvassed when he reaches New York on Tuesday. Before leaving Grand Master Hannahan stated that he is doing everything in his power to establish peace between the railroad company and the employees.

Small Freight Wreck.
A small freight wreck took place on the B. & O. near Bridgeville about noon Sunday. A gondola car heavily loaded with steel rails in the middle of a long east bound freight train collapsed and brought the string of cars to a sudden stop. The section crew was immediately called out and they succeeded in clearing the track without the aid of a wreck train, delaying traffic but a short time.

Fatal Collision.
Scranton, Pa., Nov. 19.—One trainman was killed and several others injured as the result of a collision between an empty engine and an east-bound milk train on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad near Lehigh, a small station on the Pocono mountain, 10 miles east of this city.

Engineers Off Duty.

The following B. & O. engineers are laying off: C. H. Wyant, L. E. Decker, John Kain, John McIntosh, E. W. Shmelt, R. L. Mercer, C. Able, H. Bone, James Bradley, O. Howard, J. Smallwood.

Firemen Off Duty.

B. & O. firemen who are laying off are Messrs. M. C. Carpenter, A. V. May, Charles Bartholomew, R. Axline, D. E. Clark, H. L. Robinson, E. A. Grubshaw, R. L. Morrison, S. F. Martin, W. F. Clark, T. E. Anderson, E. Chaffin, J. H. Mulligan, S. Atwood, William Brown, J. W. Emery, G. J. Gallagher.

Railway Items.

"Passengers will please not leave the car until the train stops!" This is the warning given now to passengers on the Pennsylvania lines trains when the terminal station are called out. The warning has been ordered to be called by the conductor or brakeman so as to prevent possibility of accident to any one attempting to alight while the train is in motion.

It is possible that the demands of the trainmen employed by the Pennsylvania lines west will be modified. The meeting of the trainmen at Pittsburgh was continued yesterday, and it was announced that the advance of 10 per cent in wages granted recently by the Pennsylvania will not satisfy the employees. The trainmen in this list of grievances have called attention to many other concessions, and it is likely that another list of grievances will be forwarded to W. W. Atterbury, general manager, in Philadelphia.

The commodious and elegant new round house of the Pan Handle at Dennison was put in use today. Superintendent P. A. Bonebrake and other officials have inspected the building and are very much pleased with it. It is one of the finest improvements made on the Pan Handle lines in recent years.

The Pennsylvania railroad has decided to place an order for 100 all steel non-inflammable passenger cars. It is the company's intention to build no more wooden cars and the decision to build steel cars was hastened by the building of the New York tunnel, through which only absolutely fire-proof cars will be run. The Pullman company, at the instance of the Pennsylvania railroad company, is now working on an experimental all steel non-inflammable sleeping car. About 500 of these cars, it is stated, must be ready for service by the time the New York terminal is completed.

Upton Sinclair is going on the stage. Plenty of work for the muckraker there.

ARE POTATOES FRUIT?

This and Like Query About Melons Puzzle Commerce Commission.

Are melons fruit? Are potatoes fruit? What is fruit? These and a number of analogous questions have been propounded to the interstate commerce commission, and, although the members of that august body at first supposed that some practical joker was trying to enjoy himself at their expense, they have found out that the questions are asked in all sincerity, says a Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune. It appears that the railway rate law provides that railways may furnish transportation for caretakers to travel with "fruit" and may also furnish transportation to such caretaker to return to the point of shipment.

The intention of congress appears to have been to provide for the proper care of perishable fruit which requires to be watched assiduously in order that it may not freeze or become overheat. But now the great potato carrying roads come forward and say that they have been in the habit of furnishing transportation to caretakers accompanying carloads of potatoes, and they gravely ask, "Are potatoes fruit within the meaning of the law?"

The Colorado melon growers insist that their product requires as careful handling as any fruit that goes to market, and the roads which handle the Rockyford and other melons demand of the interstate commerce commission "Are melons fruit?" How many other varieties of fruit the antitrust provision of the railway rate law will ultimately develop the commissioners decline to predict, but they have determined to hold a special session to define "fruit" as the term is used in the law, and their decision seems likely to furnish a new and extraordinary definition for a word which has usually been regarded as one of the most easily defined in the English language.

GIFT FROM CANTERBURY.

Ambon For National Cathedral Constructed of Historic Stones.

Randall Thomas Davidson, archbishop of Canterbury, will commemorate his visit to Washington two years ago by presenting to the National Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul at Washington a valuable and historic gift, says a Washington special to the New York World. During the recent repairs made on Canterbury cathedral the archbishop garnered some of the oldest stones in the edifice and had them made into an ambon, or pulpit. These, sculptured by William D. Caroe, architect in charge of the cathedral, will be given to the American cathedral in memory of the Christian martyr Stephen Langton, once archbishop of Canterbury.

The ambon stands ten feet in height and nine feet in length. The left hand bas-relief represents the venerable Bede, the earliest Christian author, dictating the last chapter of the Anglo-Saxon translation of the gospel of St. John on his deathbed, A. D. 735. The right hand bas-relief represents the martyrdom of William Tyndale, translator of the first printed English Bible, 1525.

The ambon will be placed in the little sanctuary, which is now being enlarged.

MICHIGAN GIRL'S CONSTANCY

Her Promise Kept After Her Face Had Lost Eyes and Hands.

A notable case of constancy on the part of a girl is shown by the presence recently of a bridal couple, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nelson of Ishpeming, Mich., at the Plankinton House in Milwaukee, Wis., says a correspondent of the Kansas City Star. Mr. Nelson is blind and has lost both hands, but that did not deter his bride from keeping her promise, and they were married a few days ago in the Michigan city and soon after started on their wedding trip.

Mr. Nelson was the superintendent of a mine in Ishpeming. His fiancée was the daughter of a man in comfortable circumstances. They had been engaged about a year. Mr. Nelson while carrying a box of dynamite caps fell, and the entire box exploded, destroying both his eyes and tearing one hand off and one arm at the elbow.

Tree Smuggling.

Smuggling of trees seems a peculiar action, but several women have engaged in it—not as a business, of course, but on their return from European trips, says a correspondent of the New York Press. The trees are those attractive little Dutch cedars for Christmas. In American cities their price is high, whereas over in Rotterdam fine, fat little trees in the most showy of majolica pots may be bought cheap. A thrifty matron from the Quaker City who was abroad recognized the possibility of such importations, and she bought a round dozen before she left Holland. When she disembarked on this side with her little forest she snarled explained that she was passionately fond of green things and sympathizing friends had presented the plants to aid her in passing the time on the ocean. The customs inspector did not have the courage to suggest the lumber duty applied to such trifles, so in they came. Friends are following Mrs. Penn's example.

Gold Mounted Cabbage Head.

Tightly encircling the root of a cabbage which he recently pulled up in his truck patch, George Weil, a farmer of New Columbus, Pa., found a gold ring which he lost early in the spring, says a Wilkesbarre special dispatch to the New York World. It had fallen in such a way that the young shoot had grown through the center of it and the full grown cabbage had overlapped and nearly hidden it.

ANNUAL REPORT

Of Commissioner Leupp of Indian Affairs—Further Legislation Needed.

Washington, Nov. 19.—The annual report of Francis E. Leupp, commissioner of Indian affairs, says that no congress passed so much legislation of vital importance to the Indians as the last session of that body. To promote the welfare of the Indian in the culture of sugar beets and to secure legislation looking to an equitable division of tribal funds, thereby making the red man a free and independent citizen, are the two projects for which the commissioner is working hardest as future accomplishments. To carry out the best sugar plan, legislation is needed authorizing the extension of Indian land leases beyond the five year period.

DAY'S BUSINESS IN POLICE COURT

ARRESTS MADE AT INTERURBAN STATION FOR FIGHTING ON SATURDAY NIGHT.

Charges Against an Officer to be Investigated—Novel Way of Picking a Night Lock.

The interurban station was turned into a pugilistic arena Saturday night about 10:30 o'clock, according to the statements made by eye witnesses to the affair, and one of the Newark police officers who has been off duty for several days, figured prominently in the fracas.

Three arrests were made. They are Joe Colwell, Ted O'Neill and Mack Scott, all charged with being drunk and fighting. Officer Holly Jamison will be asked by the chief and mayor to explain his part in the fracas to satisfy these officials that his part in the fight was taken merely as an officer.

As near as can be learned, taking the statement of a Mr. Russell who claims to have been a witness, the parties in the fight were drunk. Mr. Russell goes further and states that Officer Jamison, who was in citizen's clothes, acted throughout the trouble as an aggressor and not in self defense.

It seems that Jamison and one of the men engaged in an altercation on the sidewalk in front of the station. Hot words were followed by blows, and the officer knocked his opponent to the sidewalk. Others butted into the affray and they were also punished for their interference, the officer using his fists freely. Ted O'Neill and Joe Colwell were both victims of Jamison's good right arm, and only the appearance of other officers prevented further trouble.

Officers Howard and Swank assisted by Jamison, took the three men to prison. Mack Scott was also charged with carrying concealed weapons as he carried a revolver.

Besides the gun, the man was found to have over $100 in cash. He was released after posting a cash bond of $25. In police court Monday Colwell and O'Neill were fined $5 and costs for being drunk. They will probably testify in the case against Officer Jamison if charges are made. Chief Sheridan stated that Jamison would be given a chance to clear himself of the charge brought against him "If Officer Jamison does not resign," said Chief Sheridan. "He will be suspended when he again reports for duty. The matter will then be referred to Mayor McCleary and the officer will be given a trial."

J. A. Parker, an upholsterer, has a novel manner of picking a lock when he has mislaid his latch key. Parker roomed at the home of Mrs. Carter 246 North Fifth street, and when he went home Sunday night he couldn't unlock the door, and proceeded to go through it. The result was that he was locked up for drunk and malicious destruction of property. He drew $5 and costs.

Dick Atkey, one of the five prisoners released last Sunday to go to Conterburg for work, after being released from prison, was again arrested Sunday night by Officers Howard and Porter. He was dead drunk in an alley. In his pocket was found a half pint bottle partly filled with alcohol. He drew $5 and costs and a stone pile sentence.

PROPOSITION TO PURCHASE SITE MAY BE KILLED

MEETING OF COUNCIL TONIGHT WHEN INTERESTING MEASURES WILL COME UP.

Water Works Bond Ordinance Will Come Up For Third Reading and May be Passed.

There will be a regular meeting of the City Council tonight and from all indications there will be an interesting session. First of all the traction people will be given a round, and if the council finds that 30,000 volt feed wire is being strung in the city, the corporation operating the electric cars, will be given a solar plexus below.

In Zanesville and Columbus the traction people are not permitted to string their high tension feed wires into the cities. Even the little villages between Newark and Columbus make the traction people take the wires around the village.

The ordinance providing for the purchase of the hospital site in East Newark will come up for third reading and final passage. It is estimated around the city building that the measure will be killed. The idea of purchasing this property which is a corner lot with a frontage of 250 feet on Buena Vista and Indiana streets, does not find favor.

Another interesting measure will come up for third reading and passage. This is the ordinance to submit to Newark people the proposed issue of $281,000 in bonds to be used in completing the new water works plant. This measure will be probably passed by the council.

STUDENTS SHOOT

Policeman Seriously Hurt During a Riot of 300 Boys at University of Arkansas.

Fayetteville, Ark., Nov. 19.—Henry Rough, a policeman, was shot and seriously injured here during a riot of students of the University of Arkansas. Three hundred college boys were parading the streets and giving their college yells because of an athletic victory over a rival college. When the officer asked the students to be less riotous they defied him and he arrested one of them. The students then surrounded the officer and in the melee which followed he was shot in the back. Rough promptly released the boy under arrest and fired several shots at the fleeing crowd, but none took effect.

KIDNEY TROUBLES

Increasing Among Women, But Sufferers Need Not Despair THE BEST ADVICE IS FREE

Of all the diseases known, with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal, and statistics show that this disease is on the increase among women.

Unless early and correct treatment is applied the patient seldom survives when once the disease is fastened upon her. We believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most efficient treatment for chronic kidney troubles of women, and is the only medicine especially prepared for this purpose.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, headache, frequent, painful or scalding urination, swelling of limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tingling feeling in the region of the kidneys or notices sediment in the urine, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it may be the means of saving her life.

For proof, read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Sawyer.

"I cannot express the terrible suffering I had to endure. A derangement of the female organs developed nervous prostration and a serious kidney trouble. My doctor attended me for a year, but I kept getting worse, until I was unable to do anything, and I made up my mind I could not live. I finally decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and I am today a well woman. I cannot praise it too highly, and I tell every suffering woman about my case."

NEHLS SCORED 13 POINTS FOR NEWARK AGAINST COLUMBUS LADS

Conley Was Another Brilliant Star But the Whole Team Showed Up Strong Against Central in Saturday Morning Game at Columbus.

Columbus, Nov. 18.—Newark High defeated Central Saturday morning by the score of 13 to 0. The game was probably the best played in high school football this year. From the time of the kickoff to the end of the game, every inch of ground was hotly contested by both teams. Stars were plentiful and many bright plays were pulled off.

Fullback Nehls of Newark, played a great game. He scored two place kicks, one from the 48-yard line in the first half, the other from the 35-yard line in the second half. He also picked up a fumbled ball in the first half and ran 50 yards for a touch-down. But besides these three stellar plays, Nehls played an ordinary game for a man of his wide reputation, for the best he could do when called on to carry the ball on a back wide of tackle was to let the small Central ends throw him, without allowing him to gain. Conley, Newark's right half, was their most consistent ground-gainer. He also played a great defensive game.

Central worked the forward pass for large gains, and Julius's tackle backs were, as usual, good for a substantial gain. Dyer of Central, picked up a fumbled ball on his own 40-yard line and ran 55 yards, when he was tackled from behind by Lewis; Dyer fumbled and it was Newark's ball on her own 5-yard line. But Newark managed to work the ball out by a clever cross-pass and thus Central lost her best chance to score.

Central's ends, Book and Shes, did some beautiful tackling and the line, also was a stone wall on defense. The line-up:

SLOPPY FIELD AT GRANVILLE

WESLEYAN AND DENISON FIGHT A SCORELESS CONTEST ON SATURDAY.

Harry Pine Started in Putting for Denison and Probably Saved His Team Defeat.

Granville, Nov. 18.—In a sea of mud and downpour of rain Denison and Ohio Wesleyan waged an exciting contest Saturday afternoon, neither team being able to cross the goal line and never near enough for a sure place kick. The ball was in the center of the field most of the game, only once was it in danger when Denison was penalized for holding and for off-side to the one-yard line. Pine then pointed out of danger. It was mostly a game of straight foot ball. Not many trick plays were attempted. Wesleyan used line shifts a number of times in the first half for gains but were not consistent ground gainers. Denison but once gained many yards by the forward pass. Both teams were about equal in weight and displayed equal strength. Both teams were frequently penalized for holding. Fumbling was frequent on both sides, which resulted in the loss of the ball for offending team. Both teams were forced to punt often.

Pine displayed great ability at punting. His punts were always over 40 yards. Livingston was a consistent ground gainer by his repeated line backs. In the second half Captain Pannett gave way to Thompson, who put up a great game at tackle. Rice did not get into the game until the last few minutes of play which absence proved a weakness to Wesleyan's backfield. He backed up the line in great style. Stronge put up a magnificent offense, while Schweitzer played a sensational end. Two car loads of rooters accompanied the O. W. U. team to Granville. The line-up:

CHIEF JUSTICE

Overruled Demurrers in Nine Cases Against Ice, Lumber and Meat Men in Arizona.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 18.—In nine cases against alleged ice, lumber and meat trusts in violation of the Sherman act, demurrers previously filed and argued were overruled by Chief Justice Edward Kent. In the case of H. H. Demard and H. W. Reides, lumbermen indicted under the same law, special demurrers alleging defective indictment on the grounds that the accused had testified before the grand jury, were also overruled. The court said that if the accused sought immunity on that ground they must proceed by "pleas in bar," which they immediately filed. All the cases were set for hearing January 3.

NO CHANGES IN O. AND P. LEAGUE

NO CHANGES IN O. AND P. LEAGUE

SUCH IS STATEMENT MADE AT AKRON BY O. P. LEAGUE MAGNATES.

Sandusky Will Not Get Into League, Says the Writer—Zanesville May Buy a Franchise.

Akron, O., Nov. 18.—It is impossible that any changes will be made in the O. & P. league circuit next season with the possible exception of Zanesville getting back by buying the franchise of one of the southern division cities. Since the close of the recent season talk of asking the National Association to redistrict the O. & P. and Central League territory to get Canton, Wheeling, Dayton and Springfield into the O. & P. has died out.

Sandusky will not get in, it seems certain. The only way the lake city could break into the O. & P. would be by purchase of a franchise, and even then the newly organized club might be barred. Unanimous consent of all the clubs is necessary for the transfer and by statements by directors of the Akron club, Sandusky would be given a black eye.

Vice President John T. Windsor of the Akron club, is opposed to Sandusky because, he says, the city is too small and is good only on Sunday. Akron lost a bunch of money through the weak sisters in the southern division last season. Every northern trip last season was a financial loss to the Akron club and no more small towns or unknown quantities will get in by Akron's vote, the directors say.

SATURDAY'S SURPRISES.

The followers of football had it doped out that Michigan would whip Pennsylvania. It proved that the Penn. lads could advance the ball or will.

Denison was fortunate to have met Wesleyan on a sloppy field. Under any other conditions, Wesleyan would have easily defeated Denison. Pine's kicking saved his team a defeat. In the first half Wesleyan had the ball on Denison's 1-yard line when Pine kicked to the middle of the field.

Coach Herrstein of Ohio State says his team should have run up a bigger score. Many thought that neither Case nor State could score except from a kick or fluke play. State loomed up strong.

New Philadelphia defeated Cambridge High Saturday 21 to 0. Zanesville could only defeat Cambridge on a fluke play, scoring 2 points two weeks ago. Newark defeated Philly 9 to 0 here and lost to them 5 to 0 on their own field. What could Newark do to Zanesville.

There was some doubt about the result of the Newark Central game at Columbus Saturday. Newark showed average on defense at critical times but was unable to make any sensational gains by straight football. Nehls' kicking and his 50-yard run for a touch-down was the sensation of the day.

Yale and Princeton were unable to score. It was doped out Saturday that Yale would win by one or two touch-downs. Which goes to prove how uncertain a football game is under the new rules.

As was predicted, Nehls opened the eyes of the football fans in Columbus. His goal from placement from the 48-yard line was a feat unequalled in college or high school in Columbus. Nehls has a bright future before him when he enters college.

The defeat of the Minnesota team by the Carlisle Indians and Michigan's stinging defeat at Pennsylvania proves the relative strength of eastern and western football eleven. Michigan suffered her worst defeat since Yost took hold of the team five or six years ago. Minnesota has made a good showing against all western schools, but the Indians easily scored one touchdown after another. Eastern schools are stronger than Western schools.

FIRE ON VESSEL

British Steamer—Custodian Reaches Port After Fire in Hold for Three Days.

New Orleans, Nov. 18.—The British steamship Custodian which sailed from New Orleans for Liverpool November 14, arrived in port after having a fierce fire burning in her hold for three days. Part of her cargo, which consisted of 24,000 bales of cotton and lumber, has been discharged and the fire is now fully under control. The port side of the Custodian's main deck was badly warped by the intense heat. It is expected that the vessel will be able to put to sea again in a few days.

Busy Brigands.

Athens, Nov. 18.—Reports are being received here constantly concerning the activity of brigands in the Salonika district. It is declared that a number of men, women and children have been massacred at Kossiosco and Rameli, and that a band killed 15 Greeks in neighborhood of Niacusta and carried their mutilated bodies into that town.

AMUSEMENTS

EARL BURGESS STOCK CO.

Perhaps there is no manager in the theatrical world that enjoys the confidence and prestige among the lovers of amusement any more than does Mr. Earl Burgess, whose big stock company will commence a week's engagement at the Auditorium tonight. Mr. Burgess' many years of experience in theatrical life has gained for him a world wide reputation, and his motto to always please them and to give them the worth of their money by producing only the best of plays to be obtained, and to spare no expense.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble. If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

In securing capable talent. The opening bill tonight will be the greatest of all emotional Russian plays ever written, "Darkest Russia." Mr. Burgess has also secured one of the very best vaudeville artists that he could procure.

THE RAGGED MESSENGER.

"The Ragged Messenger," in which Creston Clarke is this season winning a most gratifying success, is a perfect marvel of playwright's craft. Many of its situations are startling in the extreme; its dialogue is crisp and at times prophetic, dealing as it does with the gigantic problems of the present day, and the atmosphere that permeates it is charged with all the portents of a terrific storm, when suddenly it clears and a rainbow appears on the horizon of the lives of its principal characters. No more intensely absorbing play has ever been presented. "The Ragged Messenger" will be the attraction at the Auditorium on Thursday, November 22.

THE FOOL HOUSE.

The laughable combination of well assorted nonsense, "The Fool House" with the Four Huntings as the center of attraction, played to a fair sized audience at the Auditorium Saturday night. Those who attended left with their sides sore from laughing and will no doubt welcome the show here again next season.

ORPHIUM THEATER.

This week's vaudeville bill at the Orphium will be one of the best of the season, presenting as the feature act Wesson, Walters and Wesson, trio, in their original act, "A Trip to Washington." They will also present such well known acts as the La Jesses, contortionists, Paul E. Poole, magician and card manipulator, Mahoney and Lake, singing and dancing comedians, new illustrated songs and 1000 feet of new motion pictures. Take the whole family this evening at 7:30 or 9 p. m. Prices 10 and 20 cents.

FOR ARMS

Governor Magoon Making Diligent Search in Cuba.

Havana, Nov. 19.—Governor Magoon is making strenuous efforts to recover the arms which the volunteer forces of the late government failed to surrender. It is known that thousands of volunteers succeeded in secreting their arms, and it is for these that diligent search is being made. The American officers doing this work are being assisted by the secret police. One officer succeeded during the last few days in recovering 1200 government rifles and it is believed that the search will result in finding many hundred more. The efforts in this direction are especially active in Sancti Spiritus and Cienfuegos, where large numbers of rifles have not been accounted for.

While Newark has been spreading out in all directions for the past ten years and has almost doubled in population in that time, building operations have been confined largely to streets off the public square. It is said that the Newark Trust company's nine story building now nearing completion is the first entirely new building on the square since the construction of the Hibbert & Schaus block in the eighties.

Warren S. Weiant built and operated the first telephone in Newark. It was in the old days when Mr. Weiant's coal office was located where the Griggs store now stands. He constructed a line to the coal yard in north Newark and advertised that all who bought a load of coal from him could talk over the line a quarter of a mile long. The telephone was a great novelty and it helped Mr. Weiant to sell many a load of coal. Later in 1894 when Mr. Weiant was one of the promoters of the Newark Independent Telephone company there were 180 telephones in Newark. Today the Citizens company alone has 2,600 subscribers in this city—or one for every ten inhabitants of the town.

MRS. JAS. R. HOPLEY

Speaks Monday Evening at Granville. Observance of 101st Anniversary of Town.

Granville, O., Nov. 19.—The observance of the one hundred and first anniversary of the settlement of Granville, is being held in Recital Hall this afternoon, and will be continued this evening, and is under the auspices of the Granville Historical Society.

The afternoon session began at 3:30 o'clock, when an interesting paper on "The Underground Railway," was read by Mr. Davies of Granville. It is not generally understood by this generation what is meant by the "Underground Railway." During slave times stations were established in Ohio and other Northern states to assist slaves in escaping into Canada, and Granville was one of those stations. The address was listened to with the closest attention by the large number of people that were in attendance. Interesting reminiscences of the early days of Granville were given by Mr. Chapin.

A chorus of school children under the direction of Miss Blanche La Ferre, brightened the occasion with their fresh young voices, while Mr. Judson, Miss Benedict and Mrs. Wilson contributed most artistically to the splendid musical program.

This evening Mrs. J. R. Hopley of Bucyrus, who for two years was president of the Ohio Federation of Women's clubs and who is a Granville woman, by the urgent request of a number of the members of the Granville Historical Society, will repeat the splendid address she delivered at the Chillicothe centennial on "Ohio Women," and which was said by Miss Halsey to be the most masterly presentation of the subject that had ever been given.

At the evening session Mrs. Wilson will assist in the musical program.

BEVERIDGE

Prepares a Bill Prohibiting Child Labor in United States.

Richmond, Ind., Nov. 19.—At a meeting here of the representatives of the Young Men's Christian associations of Indiana and Ohio, Senator Albert J. Beveridge stated that upon the opening day of the coming session of congress he intended to introduce a bill prohibiting the labor of children throughout the country, and a bill that will make more rigid the present restriction law. He said the child labor bill will provide that no railroad, steamship, steamboat or other carrier of interstate commerce shall transport or accept for transportation the product of any factory or mine that employs children under 14 years of age. The bill, he said, would provide that every carrier of interstate commerce shall require an affidavit from factory or mine owner or railroad shipping its product that they do not employ children under 14 years of age, the form of the affidavit to be prescribed by the department of commerce and labor or the interstate commerce commission, with heavy penalties, both civil and criminal, for violation of the law.

PHONOGRAPH IS USED BY LAWYER

MR. KIBLER TALKS TO MACHINE IN OFFICE INSTEAD OF TO STENOGRAPHER.

Greatly Facilitates Work, Makes No Mistakes and Is Always Ready For Instant Use.

This is surely the age of progress and no one is more alive to this fact than Edward Kibler, who has recently installed in his office an Edison business phonograph, which is the first to make its appearance in this city. Mr. Kibler believes in keeping pace with the times and is quick to know and appreciate a good thing when it comes to his office. Men and women with such ready minds are the ones who lead in this procession; no fossilized notions and ideas course through their brains. They are the ones who make the world move on. The fossils must step back in the line, and they are only interesting as a study of bygone existence.

When some of our old lawyers started in the practice of the law their thoughts and ideas were dropped to the paper from the point of their pens, which consumed many long and weary hours of laborious work. When we stop to think of the long and tedious tasks the lawyers of earlier days were required to perform, and then see the improvements of the present day, we wonder how they ever managed to get along.

Each year we have had introduced by some energetic and wide awake man like Thomas A. Edison, new inventions and time and labor saving devices.

The Thomas A. Edison Business Phonograph has been used in several of the largest cities of the United States but in a city of the size of Newark, it is a curiosity to most, if not all, its citizens.

The outfit consists of the Phonograph (which is very much like our musical phonograph), which may be mechanical or electrical, a speaking tube, a hearing tube, a resistance coil and attachment cord attached to the electric cord when in use. When ready for dictation a small switch is thrown and the motor left in continuous motion ready to connect the wax cylinder by pressing the finger key or the foot trip. The speaking tube is connected to a holder, under which the recorder and reproducer may be alternately turned by the handle on the swivel-plate. This enables the operator to stop his dictation at any moment and without removing the speaking tube, turn instantly to the reproducer and listen through it to the words which had last been dictated. When the last word has been heard the recorder is shifted into position to continue the dictation. The dictator may speak at the instant he touches the start button, stop any length of time, repeat any part of the cylinder for correction, all without evidence when reproduced. When the operator is ready to reproduce the dictation the hearing tube is placed in the holder and the ends are placed on the ears, the small switch is thrown, the foot pressed on the trip and the operator proceeds to put the dictation into type. This can be taken off as rapidly as the operator is able to write on the typewriter, the speed of the phonograph being regulated by the foot trip.

For convenience in carrying from place to place there is a handle attached to the cover, and a small rack is provided for placing six of the wax cylinders, which are encased in heavy paste board boxes to keep them from breaking. The phonograph weighs about 49 pounds and is so compact in size and shape, that it is easily handled. Mr. Kibler often takes the phonograph home in the evening when he has an unusual amount of work to do, and brings it back the next morning ready to be typewritten. In this way he is free from interruptions during dictations, and the work is much more satisfactory.

With the phonograph there is also a shaving machine and each wax cylinder can be shaved one hundred times, and each surface is capable of taking dictation which when typewritten will cover about two and a half pages of the regular legal cap page.

WOMEN IN HEAVEN THREE TO ONE MAN

Former Newark Minister's Estimate of Sex Statistics in the New Jerusalem.

Columbus, O., Nov. 19.—There may be in heaven three women to one man. This is the opinion of Rev. L. L. Magee formerly of Newark, now pastor of the Mt. Vernon avenue M. E. church, voiced last evening in a sermon on the question "Where are the Women?"

Mr. Magee's reasoning, by which he arrives at the conclusion, is unusual. There are three women to one man, he said last night, in his church. He believed that this proportion might be assumed roughly for other churches and in the long run for the churches of the earth.

Although not saying that church membership would be indispensable to salvation, he said graciously, "And may we not assume that, this being the ratio of the sexes in the work of God here on earth, it may be also the ratio in heaven?"

The speaker smiled a trifle as he said the last words, and his women hearers smiled broadly. The men scattered not too generously about the church, among the array of girls' and women's hats, winced. A few of the broad shoulders could be seen to shrug. There were no smiles among the men.

Last Sunday Mr. Magee spoke on the question, "Where are the Men?" There were not too many in the churches he said.

Rev. Mr. Magee predicted that the time when woman would deposit her ballot with her husband and brothers thus having her share in the decision of public questions in which she was interested equally was surely coming.

NEWS OF TOWNS NEAR NEWARK

ROY COCHRAN KICKED BY A HORSE AND BADLY INJURED AT LOCK.

Mr. Meek Retires at Coshocton—Receiver for Mill—Rigg Landis is Badly Hurt.

Lock, Nov. 19.—Roy Cochran was kicked by a horse Saturday and quite seriously injured. The horse's hoof struck him on the side, probably causing internal injuries. Dr. Morrison of Centerburg is attending him. Dr. F. C. Larimore was also called.

RIGG LANDIS SHOT.

Fredericktown, Nov. 19.—Rigg Landis was shot in his right hip while hunting with his brothers. He received a large number of shot in the hip, and only for a box of shells that he was carrying in his coat pocket he might have been killed.

BOY BADLY INJURED.

Coshocton, O., Nov. 19.—"Mama, I'm burning up," cried Arthur, the little son of J. H. Parks, Saturday evening soon after he had gone upstairs to bed. His mother rushed up stairs, and found the little form a mass of flames which had caught from an open gas stove. Throwing a cloak around the child, she extinguished the flames, but not until the child's back from his heels to his head had been burned to a crisp. The mother's hands were badly scorched. The boy has a chance of recovery.

Coshocton, O., Nov. 19.—J. P. Meek, president of the Meek company, the largest plant in the world, manufacturing advertising novelties, and having a capital stock of $750,000, announces his retirement, owing to ill health. At a meeting of directors C. B. McCoy was chosen to succeed him. The Meek company is the parent of the seven novelty plants located in Coshocton.

CEDAR CAMP BOYS ARE IN MOURNING OVER GOAT'S DEATH

The members of Cedar Camp, Modern Woodmen, were wearing mourning Monday morning. The cause of the mourning was the death of "Ramrod," the famous goat of Cedar Camp. Ramrod was a great pet and favorite with the members of the order. He has traveled more than most goats, having been in parades and big meetings in Milwaukee, Croton, Columbus, Zanesville, Dayton, and Hebron, and Clerk E. C. Richardson remarked Monday that he now supposed that "Ramrod" had "buted into goat heaven. The old fellow was tame and good natured and the members of Cedar camp were sorry to part with him.

IN THE CHURCHES

The pastors of the Presbyterian churches of the city gave extensive reviews and comments Sunday night upon the action and recommendations of the recent convention of the Presbyterian brotherhood, which was held in Indianapolis last week.

Rev. L. S. Boyce delivered an excellent and appealing sermon and review of the action of the convention the purpose of which was to seek a method by which they might save men from evil and give them a chance to help themselves.

The Rev. T. A. Cosgrove delivered a powerful address upon the proposed organization for this great purpose. In his sermon he called attention to the need for those who are willing to spend their lives toward the helping of others, for good, and toward the need of organization, first spiritually, and second, for the purpose of giving men a chance to do right. He brought out very forcefully the need of the church as a refuge and an opportunity for those willing to live for such a cause. The sermon was most eloquent and was very largely attended.

Music was furnished by the regular choir at the Second church. Mrs. C. W. Miller sang "Face to Face," which was very appropriate in that it was played in the Indianapolis convention as the delegates assembled. The quartet rendered "Breast the Waves, Christian."

At the First M. E. church Sunday night a music and song service took the place of the regular program as Sunday was the first day Rev. Mr. Sparks had appeared in his pulpit after his illness. The program was under the direction of Mr. E. G. Wall and was greatly enjoyed.

THE BURNER SYSTEM OF SANITARiums IN CALIFORNIA

PROFESSOR H. RUSSELL BURNER, M. D., whose home was for many years in Ohio—in fact, he was born at Newark, in this State—has established in California a regular chain of Sanitariums where his celebrated radium, milk and rest cure is administered. The use of radium as a curative agent owes its success very largely to the initiative of Dr. Burner. He was the largest private owner of this valuable "mineral," as it is usually termed, and he has placed his supply at the disposal of his various Sanitariums. It has been found that milk which has been made radio-active is enhanced 50 per cent as food value, and its curative possibilities can scarcely be over-estimated. All chronic diseases seem to yield readily to this form of treatment—which is modified, of course, to suit each particular case. Diseases of the throat, chest and lungs, as well as all forms of nervous troubles are promptly and permanently cured by this remarkable discovery.

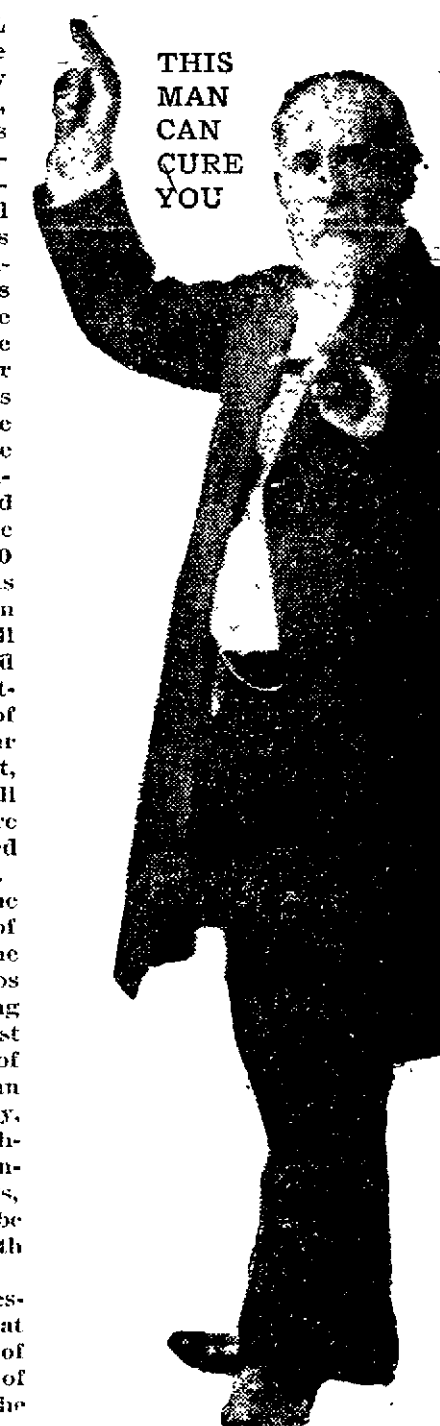

California in the winter time is an ideal place to live, and of all the beautiful spots in the Golden State, certainly Los Angeles and the surrounding country can lay claim to first place. Each and everyone of the Burner Sanitariums is an ideal home of rest and beauty, as well as a delightful health-giving place. There are trained nurses, resident physicians, and everything that can be thought of to add to the health and peace of the inmate.

Two of these delightful establishments are situated at Long Beach, Cal., and three of them are in, or near the city of Los Angeles, Cal., so that the patient has the choice of any altitude, and any atmosphere that he or she may choose.

The fullest information, together with profusely illustrated literature, can be obtained from the executive office free of all charge. All correspondence is regarded as confidential and is quite promptly attended to by Dr. Burner personally.
